What do Friends of Libraries do?

Friends of Libraries:

- Strengthen their local library.
  - Participate in community relations.
  - Believe that good library service is important.
  - Inform the community about library activities.
  - Advise and consult on library problems.
- Support the library through gifts that are not available because of budget limitations.
  - Encourage public community relations through communication with the public, library staff, and local government officials.
  - Sponsor events, programs, and projects for the benefit of the Library and the general public.
  - Work with the State Library Association for legislation to help libraries.
  - Look to the library as a service center to supply information to the community and the surrounding area.
  - Believe that the library is a basic necessity to the art and cultural needs of a community.
  - Believe in and support programs that help adults and children excel in their daily lives.

If you love libraries, you're in good company!

When I got my library card, that's when my life began.— Rita Mae Brown

Whatever the cost of our libraries, the price is cheap compared to that of an ignorant nation.—Walter Cronkite

What in the world would we do without our libraries? —Katharine Hepburn

I'm of a fearsome mind to throw my arms around every living librarian who crosses my path, on behalf of the souls they never knew they saved. —Barbara Kingsolver

Here was one place where I could find out who I was and what I was going to become. And that was the Public Library. —Jerry Kosinski
